It was exciting to hear the PM urging people to start businesses. If the startup wave sweeping through the internet industry can be replicated in other sectors, it may well unleash a multiplier effect the intensity of which we possibly can't imagine"

Pranay Chulet,
founder and CEO, Quikr

*"The government's commitment to the startup ecosystem is commendable. There is a tremendous opportunity for young innovators to build localised solutions. Ola supports the government's mission of Start up India, Stand up India"*

Bhavish Aggarwal,
cofounder and CEO, Ola

"I am very happy that our PM has built a mission for Startup India. A startup is the truest form of team work where everyone wants to achieve success. I would be very proud if by the 75th I-Day India can enter in the list of developed nations"
